

Nature Trivia Questions

10 questions · Pencil & Grid

1. What process do plants use to convert light into chemical energy?

- A. Respiration
- B. Photosynthesis
- C. Fermentation
- D. Transpiration

2. What is molten rock beneath Earth's surface called?

- A. Lava
- B. Magma
- C. Basalt
- D. Quartz

3. Which forest layer forms the main roof of leaves beneath any emergent trees?

- A. Forest floor
- B. Understory
- C. Canopy
- D. Soil layer

4. What is the largest ocean on Earth?

- A. Atlantic
- B. Indian
- C. Pacific
- D. Southern

5. Which gas do plants absorb from the atmosphere?

- A. Oxygen
- B. Carbon dioxide
- C. Nitrogen
- D. Hydrogen

6. What type of rock forms when magma or lava cools?

- A. Sedimentary
- B. Metamorphic
- C. Igneous
- D. Organic

7. Which ecosystem is characterized by permanently frozen subsoil?

- A. Savanna
- B. Tundra
- C. Rainforest
- D. Wetland

8. What is the movement of water from leaves into the air called?

- A. Condensation
- B. Transpiration
- C. Erosion
- D. Infiltration

9. Which scale is used to express mineral hardness?

- A. Richter
- B. Mohs
- C. Beaufort
- D. Kelvin

10. What is a young plant emerging from a seed called?

- A. Seedling
- B. Spore
- C. Bulb
- D. Frond