

Technology Trivia Questions

10 questions · Pencil & Grid

1. What does CPU stand for?

- A. Central Processing Unit
- B. Computer Power Utility
- C. Core Program User
- D. Central Peripheral Unit

2. Which protocol is used to load most web pages securely?

- A. FTP
- B. HTTPS
- C. SMTP
- D. Bluetooth

3. What does GPS help a device determine?

- A. Battery health
- B. Geographic position
- C. Screen brightness
- D. File size

4. What is binary code based on?

- A. Two digits
- B. Eight letters
- C. Ten colors
- D. Sixteen symbols only

5. Which component stores data temporarily while programs run?

- A. RAM
- B. Printer
- C. Monitor
- D. Router antenna

6. What is phishing?

- A. A file compression method
- B. A deceptive attempt to steal information
- C. A graphics format
- D. A backup schedule

7. Which company acquired Android Inc. and became Android's primary steward?

- A. Google
- B. Adobe
- C. Nintendo
- D. IBM

8. What does URL stand for?

- A. Universal Routing Layer
- B. Uniform Resource Locator
- C. User Reference Link
- D. Unified Remote Login

9. Which device forwards data between networks?

- A. Router
- B. Keyboard
- C. Scanner
- D. Microphone

10. What is two-factor authentication designed to improve?

- A. Screen resolution
- B. Account security
- C. Download speed
- D. Battery life